

ICAR-Indian Institute of Water Management, Bhubaneswar Celebrates ‘World Water Day’

ICAR-Indian Institute of Water Management, Bhubaneswar celebrated “World Water Day-2021” on 22nd March 2021 by organizing a Special Lecture on the occasion. Dr. P. K. Mishra, Former Director, ICAR-IISWC, Dehradun graced the occasion as Chief Guest and talked on the theme ‘Valuing Water: IPBES way of nature’s contribution to people’. He presented on valuing of water under Intergovernmental Platform on Biodiversity and Ecosystem Services. In his speech, he emphasized on the inter-relationship between economy, ecology and society to understand the real value of water. Dr. P. K. Mohapatra, Regional Director, South Eastern Region, CGWB, Bhubaneswar graced the function as Chief Speaker and spoke about ‘Groundwater Scenario in Odisha’. Dr. Atmaram Mishra, Director of the institute presided over the function and delivered the Welcome address. The program was organized by Dr. S. Mohanty, Principal Scientist of the institute.

