Subject: Report of Day-14 (30.09.2025) on celebration "Swachhata Hi Seva 2025" by ICAR-IIWM, Bhubaneswar - reg

On Day 14 of SHS 2025 (i.e., 30.9.2025), a programme was organized to sensitize, explain and link sanitation workers, field workers and other staff of the institute to government social security schemes and savings schemes of banks. A team of bank officials led by Ms. Trinita Pradhan, branch manager, State Bank of India, Rail Vihar, Bhubaneswar conducted the programme. At the outset, Chairman, Swachha Bharat Abhiyan Committee (SBA) welcomed the guests and participants and briefed about the objective of the event in the context of SHS 2025. Dr Arjamadutta Sarangi, Director, ICAR-IIWM in his address expressed concern over low-level linkage of workers in unorganized sectors to government social security schemes, and emphasized the importance of such schemes in protecting the future of individuals and their families in the event of any eventuality. The SBI team interacted with the participants to understand the registration of participants for different social security and income generating schemes such as Ayushman Bharat, PMJJBY, PMSBY, APY, PM Mudra Yojana etc. and explained in detail the provisions of these schemes, benefits and terms & conditions. She also clarified the doubts of participants regarding term insurances. Ten participants filled the forms for coverage under pension and term insurance schemes of govt. of India, while other 12-15 participants expressed their interest to open accounts in SBI and subsequently avail these schemes. It was observed that a few participants who paid a high sum of premium had discontinued their policies during covid period without understanding its implications.
